

Kelsee Woods (Contemporary Instructor) is a new graduate from the University of Memphis with a degree in Communication. Kelsee has over fifteen years of combined dance experience as a dancer, educator, and performer. She has trained with some of Memphis' best such as Studio 413, Collage Dance Collective, and Subroy Studios. Her training continues with renowned choreographers in the industry today such as Brian Friedman, Tyce Diorio, Tessandra Chavez, and WildaBeast Adams. Kelsee's talents stretch to theater performing in multiple productions around the city including "Junk", "Cabaret", "Dreamgirls", and "Hairspray".

Kelsee is a dance instructor at Subroy Studios and Ballet On Wheels as she continues to work with training dancers and dance teams. Kelsee is newly signed with Bloc LA and hopes to continue her career as a dancing and performing artist, following passion first.
